

ECT 390/ Teaching Secondary School Social Studies
(fall)

1 course unit

This course prepares students to teach social studies in secondary schools. To that end, the course: 1) examines contemporary views of social studies and the manner in which these views are reflected in curriculum standards; and 2) trains students in best practice teaching and assessment strategies.

ECT 490/Student Teaching
(spring)

2 course units

Prerequisite: Senior standing; 2.75 GPA overall; completion of all other professional courses required for certification.

Student Teaching during the senior year under direct supervision of approved public school and general supervision of college faculty.