

United States Studies Minor

Affiliated faculty: Blake, Carter, Clydesdale, Fisher, Friedman, Gray, McGreevey (Coordinator), Nicolosi, Robertson, Tarter

The interdisciplinary minor in United States Studies explores the United States and its place in the world. Without losing sight of the inner workings of American society, the emphasis is on connections among Americans and other peoples.

Requirements

Five course units:

- one prerequisite: Introduction to US Studies or other prerequisite (see below)
- one required: USA 301 Core Seminar
- three electives at the 300/400 level

No more than two courses may be from the same discipline.

Only one course can double count between a major and minor.

Prerequisite

Normally, a student is admitted to the minor upon recommendation of affiliated faculty after taking either USA 101/102 Introduction to US Studies or one of the following courses (or others with approval of the coordinator):
