

Central Eurasian Studies Minor

Advisors: Hutton

This interdisciplinary area studies minor within the international studies program seeks to offer students a broad background in the languages, history, politics, and cultures of Central Eurasia. It draws on the existing strengths of a number of departments and faculty members at The College of New Jersey. The minor program consists of five courses plus a language requirement.

Requirements:

- Two of the following course units:
 - HIS 341: Islam: Muhammed to the Ottomans
 - HIS 344: Commerce and Exchange of Ideas
 - HIS 349: The Soviet Union
- Three elective courses chosen by the student from the list of Recommended Courses or by advisement.
- Students must complete at least one course at the 200 level in Arabic, or another Central Eurasian language, or demonstrate equivalent proficiency through a language exam (intermediate low as defined in the ACTFL guidelines).

Three of the five courses required for the minor (outside of the language requirement) must represent different academic disciplines. Three of the five courses also must be at the 300-level or above.
