The Elementary Education, Early Childhood Education, Teacher of Students with Disabilities, and Education of the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing sequences and all secondary education programs fall into the category of “dual majors,” meaning that another program must be attached for it to be viable. The liberal arts or science content discipline is considered the first major for all secondary sequences. The education major is considered the first major for Elementary Education, Early Childhood Education, Teacher of Students with Disabilities, and Education of the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing sequences. Note: There is no state- or TCNJ-approved secondary major; a dual major with secondary education must be understood as classifying secondary education as an ‘attached’ program, and not as a stand-alone approved major.
